CHARLES BROWNE FAMILY

CHAPTER ONE

FIRST GENERATION

Our Colonial ancestor, CHARLES BROWNE, born probably in Suffolk County, England, in the decade of the 1620s, was one of the early settlers of Rowley, Massachusetts. He may have married first in England to FRANCES LAMBERT, a daughter of FRANCIS and JANE LAMBERT. CHARLES BROWNE was a man of some knowledge, as is proven by the fact that he was retained by the town as school teacher. He also played the drum and was granted a lot for beating the drum as a service to the town. He was elected to serve a term as Pinder for the town of Rowley. Duties in this position could include collecting taxes and acting as jailer, etc. He was married on August 14, 1647 to MARY ACY, the daughter of WILLIAM and MARGARET ACY of Rowley. CHARLES BROWNE was listed as a freeholder of Rowley January 28, 1677. He was listed as a member of the church in full communion as BR. BROWNE. Goodwife BROWNE was united with the church March 7, 1671. FRANCES (LAMBERT) BROWNE died July 23, 1647.

The marriage of CHARLES BROWNE and MARY ACY is recorded in Ipswich Deeds Book 5 Leaf 302. MARY (ACY) BROWNE was buried December 12, 1683. CHARLES BROWNE was buried December 16, 1687. At the time of his death, his estate was valued at 47 pounds 15 shillings. He may have been the brother of JOHN BROWNE of Rowley and Newbury.

The children of CHARLES BROWNE are as follows:

BERIAH, born May 8, 1648.

GERSHOM, birthdate unknown.

WILLIAM, born December 11, 1651.

JOHN, born December 5, 1653.

SAMUEL, born May 8, 1655.

EBENEZER, born September 14, 1658.

NATHANIEL, born May 20, 1660.

MARY, birthdate unknown.

JOSEPH, born June 29, 1668.

Note: CHARLES BROWNE was reported buried December 16, 1687, yet his will which follows was witnessed December 20, 1687.

CHAPTER TWO
SECOND GENERATION
CHARLES BROWNE FAMILY

The first born child of the second generation of the CHARLES BROWNE family was apparently BERIAH BROWNE, who was born May 8, 1648 at Rowley, Massachusetts. He was married on January 6, 1673/4 to SARAH HARRIS. One child was born of this marriage; SARAH BROWNE, who was apparently born between 1674 and 1684. According to the terms of the will of GERSHOM BROWNE, it appears that BERIAH and his wife had passed on before 1684.

GERSHOM BROWNE, whose birthdate is unknown, is possibly the second child of the CHARLES BROWNE family. He was buried December 5, 1683. His will was dated December 1, 1683 and was probated March 25, 1684. He mentions in it brothers JOSEPH and NATHANIEL to have half of his farm and his mother the other half. Cousin SARAH was to be brought up by his mother. Also mentioned were brothers: JOHN, SAMUEL, EBENEZER, and WILLIAM; sister MARY BROWNE, uncle JOHN ACEY, and father BROWNE, whom he made executor.

WILLIAM BROWNE, the third child of CHARLES and MARY BROWNE was born December 11, 1651 at Rowley. He took part in and died during the Canada Voyage of 1690. The inventory of his estate was taken by his brother JOHN, April 15, 1691. It was presented to the court April 22, 1691 by his brother, JOHN BROWNE, the administrator.

JOHN BROWNE was born at Rowley, Massachusetts on December 5, 1653. JOHN married ABIGAIL BROWNE on August 31, 1685. Eleven children were born of this marriage. JOHN BROWNE, along with JOHNATHAN and NATHAN WHEELER formed a church at Byfield, Massachusetts on October 13, 1706. The records of the death of JOHN and ABIGAIL are not available.

SAMUEL BROWNE was born May 8, 1655 at Rowley, Mass. He was in the Canada Voyage of 1690 in which his brother WILLIAM perished. His brothers JOHN, NATHANIEL and EBENEZER BROWNE petitioned to have JOHN STANFORD appointed administrator of his estate on October 11, 1693.

EBENEZER BROWNE was born in Rowley on September 14, 1658. He married MARY JEWETT on July 29, 1698. The JEWETT family originally came from Hull, England. There were JEWETT'S among the original settlers of Rowley. No record is available of the death of MARY (JEWETT) BROWNE. EBENEZER was married to MEHITABLE HOVEY, a widow of Ipswich, Mass. about April 7, 1722. His will dated March 30, 1733 and proven April 17, 1733, mentions that he was from Rowley. He gives his wife MEHITABLE one half of his real estate and all of his personal property, and to his kinsman ABRAHAM BROWNE, son of his brother JOHN BROWNE, deceased, the remainder. He owned property in Rowley, Newbury, and Bradford, Essex County, Massachusetts. MEHITABLE BROWNE, the widow of EBENEZER BROWNE, was married June 23, 1733 to LT. JACOB PERLEY of Boxford, Mass.

DESCENDANTS OF CHARLES BROWNE OF ROWLEY (CONT'D)

NATHANIEL BROWNE was born May 20, 1660 at Rowley, Massachusetts. He was married on June 4, 1685 to MARY WHEELER, daughter of DAVID and SARAH (WISE) WHEELER of Newbury and Rowley. He sold his homestead in Rowley to the brother of his wife, JOHN-ATHAN WHEELER, June 29, 1707. Eleven children had been born to them in Rowley. He and his wife were dismissed from the church in Rowley to the church in Groton, Connecticut on June 29, 1707. In Essex Deeds it is stated, January 8, 1707/8 as of Groton, Connecticut, late of Rowley. He is first mentioned in Groton land records in 1709. In 1712 he was made an inhabitant of Groton. July 1, 1712, his name appears among those who own lots at "Nawayank" (Lot 3, probably Noank). February 28, 1709, he bought of GERSHOM RICE of Sudsbury, Massachusetts, "a certain tract of upland and swamp" in Groton, located on the west side of the "great brook that runneth into Poquonock Cove", originally part of 200 acres of land owned by DANIEL LANE, of New London, Connecticut. In his will, NATHANIEL bequeaths this homestead to his sons BENJAMIN, ABNER, and WILLIAM. To BENJAMIN, he gave the dwelling house. WILLIAM sold his portion to BENJAMIN. It was located near a "small ledge of rocks, 190 rods to the great brook". He owned land on Fort Hill, Long Hill by the ferry, and by "Nawayank". His homestead farm or a portion of it is now owned by GEORGE MINOR of Groton. NATHANIEL BROWNE died in May of 1731. His will was probated May 16, 1731 in Groton, Connecticut.

MARY BROWNE, birthdate unknown (may have been born in England prior to 1647) died in Rowley, Massachusetts on December 9, 1682/3.

JOSEPH BROWNE, born June 29, 1668. He was the youngest child of CHARLES and MARY (ACY) BROWNE. He was mentioned in the will of his brother GERSHOM, which was made in 1683, but not in his fathers, which was made in 1687, so he apparently died between those years.

AMOS BROWN

There passed away from our mid'st on Monday 21st inst, AMOS BROWN at the advanced age of 81 years 4 months and 12 days.

The deceased was born in Scott, Cortland County, New York on November 29th 1828, the son of SIDNEY and LOVINA (SALISBURY) BROWN. He attended school until eighteen years of age after which he learned the trade of a carpenter. He came with his parents to Adams County when about 25 years of age, travelling by rail to Chicago, thence by water to Milwaukee and the rest of the journey to Whitewater. He remained in Lake Mills, Jefferson County one summer and in the fall of 1854 arrived at White Creek returning again to Lake Mills in one year where he was married. He resided in Adams County until 1856 and then went to Eau Claire County where he took up one quarter section of land and engaged in farming for about two years when he traded the land for a farm in Adams County.

Mr. Brown in 1864 enlisted in Company K Thirty-Eighth, Wisconsin Volunteer Infantry and was assigned to the Army of the Potomac in front of Petersburg. He was there until the end of the war and was discharged in 1865. He was a member of Ennis Reed Post No. 209 G.A.R. and was commander of the local post and prominent in G.A.R. matters. He was chairman of the town board for two years and took an active part in all that concerned the welfare of the community. He was a loyal son of the states and held by his many acquaintances in high esteem for his sterling worth.

The wife of the deceased was JANE YOUNG, daughter of WILLIAM and PHILINA YOUNG, of Oakland, Jefferson County, who died March 21, 1897, nearly thirteen years between the death of husband and wife. Out of eleven children born to Mr. and Mrs. BROWN, only two are alive, LORANA E., now a MRS. EDDY of Chicago, and EDWIN A. BROWN, now in charge of the farm.

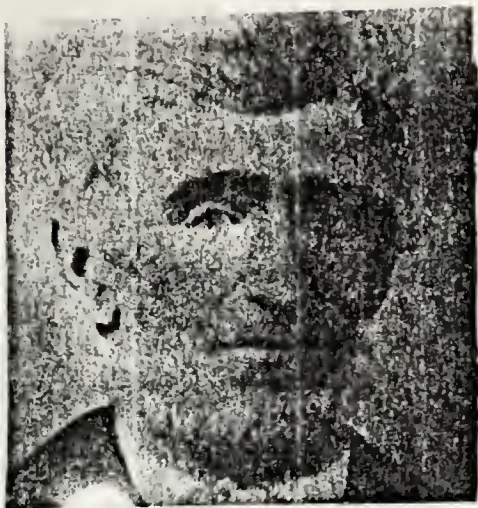

The deceased was staying with his son when -- "Death with gentle guile, Betook him far away".

The funeral of the deceased was on Wednesday March 23 at 10A.M. The service was conducted by the Rev. Jas. Deans.

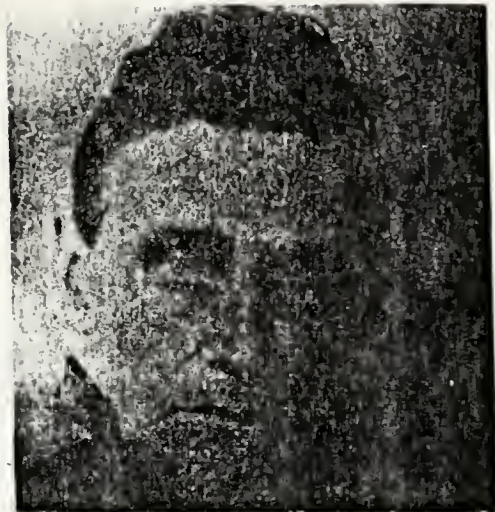

The obituary was read by Rev. Deans and a word of warning that CHRIST alone is the only one that offers any hope in this dying world. Speaking to the mourners, he said that the substances are in reality the shadows and the shadows the things that are. . . That we are shadows in a land of shadows but when death appears to who is hid in CHRIST it is the opening of the portals that lead us back to GOD and that the Resurrection is like unto the coming of the beauty of nature in springtime.

The song "Slowly Passing Down The Valley" was then sung, followed by the benediction. The old Soldiers and friends took one more last look at their old companion, and the loved ones looked once more upon their departed father and grandfather.

About 38 teams followed the casket to the grave where the old soldiers paid their last loving tribute to their comrade. With a closing word from Rev. DEANS, the dust was committed back again to the dust to wait the will of the LORD.

HENRY L. BROWN

Dad was a hard worker, worked at such things as digging ditches for the water works of Kansas City. Left Kansas City during the flood of 1903 with a team of horses and tried his hand at farming in Douglas County, Missouri and nearly starved. Came back to Kansas City with a blind appaloosa horse which he used to pull a spring wagon to collect rags, iron, bottles and bones to sell for junk. He also hauled furniture and baggage. When he was able to get some money, he was a good provider, but so many of the provisions were on credit, however they were all fully paid. As a father he was very strict, but not as strict as I now believe he should have been. He liked his liquor a little better than it liked him. He enjoyed music and played the violin very well. He went to Plankinton, South Dakota as a guard at the State Disciplinary School for boys. He left there in 1919 and returned to Kansas City where he peddled hot tamales on the street, and eventually went to the Independent Order of Odd Fellows home at Liberty, Missouri. He had held all the offices in the Odd Fellows Lodge and was author of a burial ceremony for the lodge. He fell and broke his hip and was still in the hospital when he died. He is buried in the Cemetery at the Odd Fellows home at Liberty, Missouri.

REMINISCENCE OF WALLACE BROWN

We first came to Kansas City in 1891, lived on Delaware street. Mother sent me for a K.C. Star which cost 1¢. On the way home a fellow offered me 2¢ for it. I sold it and went for another, had a star route of my own of five or six customers. I recall having seen William J. Bryan speak from a Tally-ho (a four in hand coach) at Eleventh and Grand in front of the star office, and following him down to the old Union Depot, via the river front.

The star gave us boys tickets to the circus' as they came to town. They hired all the moving vans to haul us to the circus grounds at 15th and Paseo. My Dad had a moving van, however I rode in another van. Some of the circus' I recall were Lemon Bros, Forepaugh and Sells Bros., and Ringlings. We saw them all. I was given a ticket by the Star to see Jim Corbett at the Grand when he was Champ. I saw Buffalo Bill in a parade at Fifteenth and Indiana. I once stood by Frank James and Cole Younger when they had a show. Overheard Frank turn to Cole and say, "Well , I'd better get in there and rescue the stage", and with that he would mount up. This was about 1903 or 1904.

Wallace Brown

HENRY LAWRENCE BROWN

I was born January 1, 1896 A.D. at 203 Southwest Blvd, Kansas City, Missouri. I was the fourth of five children of DAVID NORVIL BROWN and ETTA LOVISA BROWN nee MCGINNESS. I went to school in Kansas City, was a bad boy, and was refused re-admission to Jackson and Manchester Schools finally leaving school to sell newspapers on the streets in order that Dad and I might eat.

I went to work as an elevator boy at the Aberdeen Hotel (514 E 9th) and later became a clerk there. During my time there I got to know several people who used dope. Cocaine was 25¢ a box. I worked for a liquor importer in Kansas City before going to Colorado to work on the Bar Turkey Track Ranch.

I came back to Kansas City and went to work for the J.J. Greer Hotel and eating house Company as was my future wife when we met.

I entered the Army when I was drafted in 1918. I was promoted to the rank of Corporal after about two weeks. I served a total of six months and one week. After I left the army I went to Boston, Massachusetts to try for merchant marine duty, but would not ship out in a sour smelling, rat infested boat.

I came back to Kansas City and went to work for my stepfather (Franklin Christopher Pelchman) in the sign letter business. I went to Rogers, Arkansas and married Miss Myrtle Josephine Sly at her parents home June 18, 1919. We returned to Kansas City and established a home. I went to school at The Western Union Telegraph Company at 7th and Main St. and stayed with them 5 years. I then went to work for Postal Telegraph Company and stayed for ten years, during which time we acquired three sons; George Lawrence, Wallace Clinton, and Norvil Leary.

Shortly after the birth of the youngest, we went to Avoca, Arkansas to try farming and wound up postponing a few meals. We came back to Kansas City and I drove taxicabs, then worked on W.P.A. and finally went to work for the Quartermaster Corps U.S. Army in Kansas City.

I next went to work for the Rock Island Railroad. I was admitted to the Masons in 1950. I shall retire from the Railroad the 31st day of this month, June 1961. I am 6' "tall and weigh about 200# with a smile on.

THE DAVID N. BROWN FAMILY
RECOLLECTIONS BY
ELFIE VIOLET (BROWN) KEMP

I remember my mother (Etta Lovisa McGinnis Brown Pelchman Strong Lynch) from the time I was three years old, when she must have been twenty-five years old, as she was twenty-two years my senior. Therefore that would have been the year 1892. She had a domestic sewing machine which her mother had given her. She did not allow Brother Wallace or me to play with that machine but kept it covered with a brown fringed shawl which she wrapped around Wallace and me when we were ailing. Many a time she used the shawl as a tent and put a hot flat iron in a pan of Vinegar to help us get rid of chest colds. Many many times she ironed our beds so that they would be warm for us to climb into and get to sleep. So many things she did for our comfort.

I remember the confectionary on Twelvth Street near the viaduct-the glass candy dishes-the old oil wall lamp with mirror reflectors. I remember well her care of Wallace, when he had measles. He had all of the ailments in there worst form, whereas mine were always milder. Mamma used to serve milk shakes as well as sell candy at her candy store. Someone gave her a milk glass plate which I have often wished, since, that I owned. I believe at that time we lived on Allen Avenue in a basement. I saw a horse step on a man hole cover and bloody himself in so doing. Also I saw a man ride a bicycle with a big front wheel while I was at the candy store.

Along about this time we lived at ninth and Main on the north side of the street. The place was infested with rats and roaches, as I remember it. While we had the confectionary, one time Mamma was talking to a man, whose name I do not remember, he was smoking a cigarette but threw it away on a vacant lot. I indicated I was going to get it. My mother said if I did, she would spank me. I did and remember still the warmth of my flour sack panties, which resulted. I learned the hard way how firm my mother could be.

When I was four years old we lived on College Ave. Wallace told me in recent years it was at Indiana and College. While there a neighbor wanted to borrow mamma's umberella. I poked it through the screen (Mosquito Bar) to hand it to the neighbor. Mamma scolded me later for poking it through the Mosquito Bar. I had a lots of big and little dolls and we had a green Moquette Rug, and Mamma had me piece a quilt by hand while she did some sewing on the sewing machine. She seemed proud of what I had done. Also I scattered Oats Dad had for his horses, for which he strapped me with the harness lines, but it did not hurt, as much as scare me. One time Mamma gave me a dime and told me to go to the store and get some bacon. I started out but a boy told me to spend it for candy, which I did. Mamma insisted on my going to the boys mother and tell her.

When we moved from that place Mamma had a pan of growning Horse-radish which Dad gave to a neighbor. Wallace caught and cooked some Crawdads and gave me some and I liked them and have wished many times for some more. I think this was when we moved to 2300 Bellefontaine. A family by the name of Moon lived in part of the house.

We always had morning Bible reading and prayer. The Moons were also religious. I spent one night with the Moons. Next morning Dad took me to see Mamma who was in bed with newborn Lydia Winefred.

All I remember of her was her death as she was lying in our mothers lap at the age of four months and four days. At her funeral which was held at our house, the song "What a Friend We Have In Jesus" was sung. Some one loaned me a pretty coat to wear to her burial. A family by the name of Neal or O'Neal were our neighbors on the west. It is my impression, right or wrong, that Mamma continued her acquaintance with this family and visited some of them the day she died. I remember visiting one of our neighbors who scrubbed her rag rug while it was tacked to the floor, but I cannot remember her name. One of her daughters taught Wallace and I how to spit in a Butter and Egg Flower and that it would swallow the spit.

I recall that Mamma used to take Wallace and me on walks to St. Marys Cemetary which had McAdams Road on at least one side of it. One time on such a trip she let Wallace and me buy a plant at a Green House. He selected a red Geranium. Mine was a Pansy. I remember Dad had a wagon and I stood in the back of it and, to show off, spit on a boy. Again I felt the heat of a paddled area. Punishment deserved and remembered! I remember that Dad got a horned toad while we lived there, but it disappeared. I also had the mumps while we lived at 2300 Bellefontaine.

Lawerence was born at 203 Southwest Boulevard January 1st, 1896. Dad was attending Browns Business College at the time and was given a Baby Shower for Lawerence (Henry Lawrence Brown) we were living at that time in a family Hotel. The children all ate at one table, the grownups at another or others. One time when a woman wanted coffee and no milk was available my mother gave her breast milk for her coffee. Sounds scandalous, but it wasn't a public exhibition. They went to the kitchen to do the job. One time I recall I sat in a pan of bread my mother had set to raise. A man committed suicide by shooting himself in the temple behind a billboard in a vacant lot east of the Hotel. I saw him after he was found. One time I saw convicts with ball and chain on their legs working on the streets south of the Hotel. One time Queenie Brannen and I were walking on the street that ran south of the Hotel. In the ash driveway to a lumber yard I found what looked like a sun-tanned nickel. Queenie wanted to trade me a nickel she had for my sun tanned one but I wouldn't do it. My mother found it to be a five dollar gold piece. For some reason I don't recall now I wanted it paid on my sister Lydia Winefreds grave. I can't imagine any reason for such a wish unless my mother had grieved at her burial not being paid for. Dad took me to E. Stines undertaking office and had me tell the man what I wanted to do with the gold piece and he accepted it and looked very solemn about it.

While we lived on Southwest Boulevard, Wallace took me to see the first brick house built in Kansas City-one built by McGee. This was torn down years ago. Some family was living in it when we were there. A cyclone passed over Kansas City while we lived at the Hotel, but did no damage. The same day one hit in St. Louis.

I started to Weber (Webster) School about 1895 while we lived at the Hotel.

Wallace put a cat belonging to one of our neighbors on the horse car which passed the Hotel. This caused quite a rumpus as I remember it. Wallace had a dog he called Rags. Several of us kids played in a store room.

There was a confectionary in the west end of the Hotel building. One time the confectioner scorched some candy and we kids raided the store and ate the scorched candy. One time I took a small sack of rolled Oats to school for refreshments and they got spilled. Something was written on my slate and my teacher asked me what it said. I couldn't so she told me some reprimand by the janitor was in order. I never took Oats to school again. When I was seven years old, that would have been in 1896, we lived at 2119 Bellefontaine in the upstairs of the Wilse Hutchinson home. They had a daughter, Dilly, who used to ask Mamma to heat her flat irons on Mamma's gasoline cook stove and then would fail to use the iron, which aggravated my mother no end. She did not like to waste the gasoline. Dilly's brother and Wallace used to go to the railroad tracks, among other places. One time Dilly's brother was chased on his bike by a policeman on a horse. Dad was home at the time and took the boys bike and hid it in an upstairs room. I don't know why the boy was being chased, but it seems to me I heard it was for riding on the sidewalk. Anyway the boy was not arrested. Later he jumped a railroad train and fell off in such a way that his heel was cut off. When Wallace came home Mamma knew there was something wrong, but Wallace would not tell her what. Two of Mamma's friends were Mrs. Hudgens and Mrs. Mathis. I remember of visiting Mrs. Mathis later in life with Mamma. When I was seven I went to Yeager School. At this time Dad had horses and I used to love to see them roll so enthusiastically when Dad unharnessed them.

There was a cistern at Hutchinson's house that had wiggle tails. I don't remember where we got respectable water for cooking and drinking. A girl friend and I ate green apples. She died as a result, but they did not even make me sick. Her grandmother had a loom that nearly filled a room and was very noisy.

When I was eight years old we lived at 2108 Agnes. Our neighbors two doors north had a son by the name of Willie Best. A very nice boy. One door north lived a man named Newt Younger, who claimed to be a cousin of Cole Younger, the bandit. Newt Younger was a trick violinist, could play it behind his back and with its strings loosened. His daughter played the organ and guitar. I think his son also played the fiddle. Part of the time a girl by the name of Ruth LaRoche lived upstairs there and she was one of my associates. I saw her years later serving as a cashier at one of the concessions at Electric Park. Another of my associates was Jessie Hutchinson, a niece of Wilse Hutchinson. She was a daughter of Clark Hutchinson. There were eight Hutchinson children, and as I remember them, a very happy family. Jessie was full of imagination. She and I were school teachers with imaginary pupils. She punished her pupils very vigorously with a switch. When we played house, our dishes were broken china, our children were bottles. Jessie's birth mark was a growth of hair which she called her horses tail. She was an industrious little person. I've often wished I had continued her acquaintance. One time the Hutchinson family had a party but my Dad did not go so I went and told him their house was on fire. He went to help, but did not stay and brought me home with him. I did not get the expected and deserved spanking.

Letzig, the Potatoe King, lived a few doors south of us. He had a daughter who was near my age, but I don't recall that we played together. Years later a boy who worked for him used to huckster vegetables at our house. He was married at that time and so was I. I gathered from his conversation that he and his wife were not compatible. I never knew his name.

At this time and place there was a hydrant in our yard from which we and our neighbors obtained water. While we lived here my mother bought a singer sewing machine which she gave to me when I went into housekeeping, much later in life. Our front room had red wallpaper and the windows were hung with lace curtains. The kitchen wall paper was blue with spatter of many colors- delightful to me. But my mother did not approve of the blue. She said it gave her the blues. We had a garden and one of its products was little Cherry tomatoes.

Willie Best and I both had tadpoles in jars, mysterious acting creatures in their development. No legs at first- then two front legs- then two hind legs and disappearance of the tail. My tadpoles disappeared until there were only two and I don't know what happened to them. I remember the bed of Touch Me Nots in the front yard and the many colors of Morning Glories twining on our front porch, and the Berry children who lived on the northeast corner across the street. Their yard was rich with beautiful flowers.

Wallace and I attended Lathrop School in 1898, which was when I was nine years old. We were living at Peet Bros. old soap factory at Front Street and Delaware. It had many advantages- soap, fuel, gas lights and a spacious barn connected to the building. We lived in the office part of the building. After a time Mrs. Mike Brannen, her son Bill and daughter Queenie moved into one of the office rooms and curtained off another part of the building for another room. Mrs. Brannen and Bill worked in the candy department of The National Biscuit Company which was located between Second and Third on Main Street.

We had no social contacts while living there except we did visit with Ad & Em Friberger and Harry whose hair was in long curls. They lived in Wyandotte, which is now a part of Kansas City, Kansas. I think the night life on Front Street in summer was the reason we moved away. Some of the characters were very noisy, profane, licentious. Wallace ran away from home at least twice when we lived there. Once he went to Ad & Em Friberger's. On March 30, 1898 he left home and we got no word of him till March 30, 1902. (Four years to the day) He had gone to Chicago with a bum, was put in an orphans home and farmed out to work for a farmer, under an assumed name. Wallace said his reason for leaving home was Dad's cruel punishment. Ellison was born at Peets Soap Factory, Front St. and Delaware June 17, 1898. I've wondered many time how my mother and father kept their sanity during Wallaces absence. Dad gave up hope for him, thought him to be dead. Mamma never gave up hope of seeing him again. Besides trying the police to find Wallace, she took articles he had worn to mediums and spiritulists to get word of him.

Mamma had a lovely fancy wicker buggy for Lawrence one day in front of McQuinn's store Mamma let me wheel him to the corner where an awkward curbstone caused me to overturn the buggy. It frightened me terribly. I was so afraid that I had hurt Lawrence.

Several times there were baptisms in the Missouri River. One time Wallace ran down to the river bank and sunk in quicksand to his middle. I wanted to go get Dad to help him out, but Wallace did not want me to go and made me promise never to tell Dad. I do not believe I ever told anybody. Wallace got out all by himself. When we moved from the Peet Bros. Factory we lived at 2436 Tracy in the basement. People by the name of Bush lived in the main part of the house. The winter was very cold and I remember the beautiful thick frost pictures on the north window of the kitchen. The Wolverine Dairy sold us milk and Dad bought a bowl of cream from the dairy man because I did not remember ever tasting cream before. When the Fourth of July came Mamma had to take Ellison into the house because the fireworks scared her so. Aunt Nancy and Aunt Sena (probably Nancy May Hunter and Celinda VanPatten) visited us one day and Aunt Nancy gave me some maple sugar and candy, probably of their own making. I did not like a certain dress I was made to wear that day. It was a nice one mother had made me. Aunt Nancy told me "pretty is as pretty does". These ladies were Dads Aunts.

One day I had two spasms, becoming unconscious for a short time. Mamma called a doctor- I think Dr. Wheeler, and odd fellow. When he came he considered me the healthiest person there. I think Mrs. Brannen and Queenie were there visiting us at the time. Queenie was one of my chums for several years. It seems to me Mrs. Brannen married a man from Tulsa. Have wished we had kept in touch with each other through the years. There were vacant lots on each side of the house. I made a wigwam of tall weeds one time. The wood block pavement on Tracy Street was removed while we lived there and concrete or asphalt was used to replace it. Dr. Laughlin and another Doctor lived across the street a few doors from each other. Mona Myers lived north of us. She had Typhoid Fever and when she recovered her hair was cut short. At her home she had a chair made of cow horns and Buffalo horns, covered with blue plush. I attended Bryant School at 24th and Vine or at Vine and Howard when we lived at 2436 Tracy. Bert Ridenours wife visited us for some days but was not welcome by my mother, who was weak following Ellisons birth. Dad thought it was a Christian duty to give her a home when she was in trouble. A woman came to our house begging. Dad was going to give her some chairs but she gave him a wrong address. Mamma was very much the "I told you so type" which is not the easiest sort of person to get along with. The barn at the house on Tracy was well built and floored, but here Daddy was arrested for cruelty to his horses.

I think we lived at 2108 Agnes when I went to the Irving School at 24th and Prospect. Golf skirts were in style then. They were a solid color on the outside and plaid inside. One of the teachers wore one. My teachers name was Amy Smith, if I remember correctly. I remember of having trouble with an arithmetic problem which she tried to help me with and then I was sick and had to stay home several days. It was during this time I first heard of the drive for better wages for teachers. When I told Dad about it, he snorted, not favoring increased wages for them. I went to Bryant School again when I was eleven years old, when we lived at 26th or 27th and Woodland.

The winter was very bitter and the snow deep. Our fruit jars froze and bust. A negro man and his wife and new born baby lived next door. One evening in summer an ice wagon and team kept circling north of our house and the negro man stopped the team. I don't know what had become of the driver. Dad practised a lot on the violin and some of the tunes he played I remember to this day. There was a grate in our front room at this house and Dutch tile but when we tried to use this grate it smoked badly. From this place we moved to 18th and Vine but I still attended Bryant School. Here we lived in two second story rooms. The celings and windows were high and big. A man by the name of Miller used to come and spend late hours playing pinocle with my Dad. When Dad lost a game I would bawl. Mamma did not like Mr. Miller to stay so late. Mamma had inherited some money on the death of Grandpa McGiness. My parents planned to move to Douglas County in south Missouri, expecting to make a lots of money. Dad bought two mustangs and we planned to drive from Kansas City to Douglas County in a covered wagon. I mentioned the plan to my teacher Mrs. Sadler. She was not as enthuseastic as I was. I was still attending the Bryant School. One of our school activities was competing in marching between school rooms. On one occasion I was flag bearer when my room was defeated and I lowered the flag in defeat which amused the teacher no end. The principals name was Armstrong. One time in incliment weather, he punished a boy for doing a lot of screaming. It arroused a lot of resentment in the students. One time my teacher sent me to the janitors wife for Beef Tea for her dinner. On a different occasion in cold weather my hands were frozen enough to make me bawl, and two of the teachers scrubbed my hands with snow.

While we were living at 18th and Vine and while we were preparing to move to south Missouri a policeman knocked on our door. He asked Dad if he were D. N. Brown and if he had a missing son, and he let Dad know Wallace wanted to come home. It was four years to the day since we had last seen Wallace to the day we heard from him again. I believe Dad sent money for Wallace's return. Waiting for him set us back a few days from going to Douglas County. In the meanwhile the mustang mare bit off her tongue and Dad replaced her with an old mare. A German woman who lived in the building asked mothers permission to clean up the rooms for us after we had left. I thought that was very neighborly. Dad found the white mustang uncontrollable. When he was hitched to the wagon the mustang went on a tear and the old mare just went along for the ride, as I remember it. I enjoyed the trip. When we reached south Greenfield the neighbors warned us not to stay overnight at a place Dad had selected, because a sudden storm would flood the place. The neighbors had us go to a log cabin to spend the night. At Springfield Dad traded the white mustang for Nate, the spotted Appaloosa horse. Dad had Nate shod at Springfield and Nate kicked the device to pieces, that was supposed to hold him while the Blacksmith shod him. Dad said the Blacksmith did not charge him for the breakage. Dad had to teach Nate to back. We spent the night outside of Springfield, Missouri. As we were preparing for night a tornado hit and soaked our bedding. Wallace accidentally hit mothers mouth with a slat causing her lip to bleed. The storm tore up Joplin pretty bad we heard. I was very scared.

When we reached the Ozark mountains we found rocky roads and difficult hills. Some of which we climbed afoot and used rocks to chuck the wheels when the horses had to rest. It was at one of these stops that Mamma found a rock with a petrified or fossilized snake in it. Lawrence said he was with Mamma when she found it. It has been called the snake rock by the family since. Mamma found at least one ossified spider. A year or two later I showed the snake rock to, Miss Jean Sublette, zoology teacher at Manual High School, who said it was some kind of a snail. She wanted to put it into a museum but Mamma would not consent to that.

The house we lived in at first in Douglas County was a log cabin with a rough wood lean to for the kitchen. The logs were chinked with mud and the fireplace was stone- very primitive. I do not remember but one window in it. Wallace slept in an upstairs room reached by a ladder. I never was up there. I do not remember where Lawrence, Ellison, and I slept. Mamma and Dad slept in the main cabin. The Pansies, wild Hyacinths, Violets and other wild flowers were so beautiful. Corn was already planted when we reached there. Some was washed out and had to be re-planted. Wallace and I, Rosa and Bowen Murray did the re-planting on their place, which is the one Dad had rented to farm. We must have been very unsuccessful farmers. I don't know what return, if any, was ours. The losses were very great to us. A cow that Wallace tethered choked to death. Also three horses died. We all had boils, climate sores, stone bruises. Sheep and Wood Ticks were prevalent. We all lost our health. However Mom took us kids on Hikes and showed us arrowheads, rock formations, cliffs, beautiful trees and opened our minds to many of nature's wonders- moss, clear water, etc. So our stay in the Ozarks was not a total loss.

Mamma cooked for Jim Brooks for a time. Dad and some other men went on the White River to work. When he returned we all prepared to return to Kansas City. Mamma cooked and boned some chicken for us to eat on the train. Dad drove through on Nate. He had sold our Cherry furniture, stove, and other belongings.

Mamma had made friends with a family named Lemon, one named Berry and the Gardners, the Murrays, and the Hatfields. Two Hatfield women went to church barefooted, in yellow calico dresses. Belle Rippee, Rosa Murray, and Naomi Turner were my girl associates. I was also very interested in Bowen Murray and Munroe Turner. Wallace still had the urge to run away, but I remember Mamma's pleading with him to go if he wanted, but please let her know that he was going. When we got back to Kansas City we staid for some days with Mr. and Mrs. Trainor and Edna. I suppose the boys, Lester and another whose name I do not recall, were there but I do not remember. One time Mr. and Mrs. Trainor were arguing and he slapped her face. He said "They are welcome to stay as long as they want to". I told Mamma and not long after that she rented a second floor room further east on 18th Street and we slept on straw ticks. I got a job with Jesse Van Doven at 13th and Oak and worked for her seven weeks. She had a boarding house. The place was nice and clean. I helped Miss Jesse with the house work. Her father had a fish market. Mom and Dad visited me there once or twice.

I recieved $1.25 a week plus my board for my work. After those seven weeks I went to work for National Biscuit Company. My folks moved to a house between 17th and 18th on Campbell. The house was on an alley way. We used a gasoline stove for cooking. It leaked gasoline. One time I lit it and fire scorched the woodwork. But I carried out the pan that caught the gasoline. The fire was out before the fire department reached home. I thought I had done a brave thing but Mamma was not very enthusiastic about it. Mamma was working at this time but I don't remember where. I took a notion to do the washing so as she would not have so much to do. I boiled colored and white clothes together and Mamma was very critical of the job I had done. And I starched things I should not have. George and Frank Strauss lived next door south of us. George was a terrible tease and I threw a hammer at him once, but missed him. Frank loaned me lots of Young Wild West, Nick Carter, Buck Rogers and such weeklies and I enjoyed them very much. To this day I think they are part of the Spirit of Invention that has inspired our men and boys of the present. However they were not considered good reading at the time that I read them. I think at this time Mamma was taking Lawrence and Ellison to Mattie Rhodes Day Nursery. Wallace was working at Murphy's Restaurant somewhere on 18th St. When I went to school it was the Hamilton School at about 15th or 16th and Campbell. Dad allowed a Mr. Elliot, who was down on his luck to room with us. He got work with a George Eysell at a Pharmacy. Mamma did not appreciate his being with us. I was graduated from the seventh grade taught by Miss Lapp. Miss Webster was the principal. My seat mate, Lillian Skinner was a pianist and did the playing for us to march in and out of school by. She was also an artist. Dad brought the ice cream to our school picnic in Budd Park, in his express wagon, driving Nate. While we lived on Campbell my close associates were Joe Strauss' daughters Mary and Bertha. They were always so refined in manners and they wore nice clothes and had an agreeable mother and a piano. Mary played accompaniments for some actors at their house at times. They used to get complimentary tickets to the Auditorium Theatre. I went with them once or twice but payed my own way. The girls were cousins of George and Frank. I never met their fathers. The boys father was a baker. Joe Strauss was a Saloon keeper. Years later I attended Mary's wedding at a catholic church. I attended her mothers funeral which also was held at a catholic church. I attended several church meetings with their Aunt.

When I was 14 years old we lived at 23rd and Summit. Mamma worked at a garment factory and I worked there as short time sewing on buttons. At this time Wallace was near McCook, Nebr. And Hays, Kansas, helping in the harvest fields and such. He wrote home for some money to buy a team and buggy. I resented this and his freedom.

When we lived on Campbell I attended Manual Training High School, but did not finish the first year because I couldn't dress as well as the other girls. I liked my other studies and my teachers: Stella Jenkins, English; Jennie Sublette, Zoology; Miss Griffith, and Miss Welch, sewing.

I also had as instructors: Mr. Small, Algebra; Mr. Cowan, and two other art teachers. Against my fathers wishes, I quit school and went to work for the National Biscuit Company.

SOME FURTHER RECOLLECTIONS OF THE TIME WE SPENT IN DOUGLAS CO.

I recall the bull that visited our home in the Blacksmith Shop on the Jim Brooks place. Lawrence and I were alone. All the animal did was drink up Mamma's rain water. A man on a beautiful gray stallion came to inquire about him but I did not know where he had gone. Wallace fed his pup the night we were planning to leave Douglas County. I put my hand down to pet the pup and he bit my wrist. Dad told me I ought to know better than to pet a dog when it was eating. It seems to me when Dad came back from the White River expedition he had shaved his mustache. He did that several times in my memory.

Also one time I recall, Mamma started to go back to Kansas City, because of the privation resulting from so much financial loss. She had Jim Lemmon take her but she was back the same day. I guess she was taking Lawrence and Ellison with her. I did not know she planned to go until she passed Star School.

Mamma often said she wanted a home of her own even if it was just one room. When I was 16 we bought the place at 1407 Belmont. It was in what was known as the Roland Park Addition. The person who accepted payments was Benjamin Denham. If I remember correctly payments were $5.00 a month. I made some of the payments. The house was, as mother had always mentioned, one room and like a crude barn. The windows were just holes, no frames, no glass. It seems to me the night after we moved in, there was rain and there was nothing to keep it from coming in. Dads singing was so jolly and so were the songs he sang. Our neighbors on Agnes Ave. used to gather to hear him sing. He and A. A. Akin helped build the Indiana Ave. street car tracks. I carried Dads dinner to him sometimes. Mr. Akin was an organist and played beautiful music. Mamma said Dads songs attracted people but hers sent them away. She was a sweet singer. Dad got me a guitar when I was 9 years old but after about six weeks of lessons, my teacher, Miss Dunlop told my folks my hands were too small to play it. I think she meant my mind was too small to learn to play it. She lived on Adeline Court. Dad dug rock out of the place at 1407 Belmont to make a foundation but never finished it. He and Mamma separated by the time I was 17 years old. Dad took Lawrence and started to buy a place at 1305 Belmont. I believe he never finished paying for it. Mamma kept Ellison and me. In helping pay for the place and in bringing in groceries I learned to spend my little earnings cautiously. What I had left of my earnings after paying for these expenses and carfare, I gave to Mamma until Bert and I were married. She was a very skilled seamstress and good economical cook and a very determined woman. One time she and some of her associates at work decided to ask their employers for some benefit. Mamma was the only one of the group to make the demand. She was careless of her appearance at home, but careful in public. Mamma hired Henry Ross to put siding on our house and to finish the foundation, dig a cistern, and paint the house. Mr. Ross lived on 13th St. and we had been carrying water from his well. Also we had been carrying water from a spring at 15th and Topping.

You can imagine how precious water was and still is to me. At this time carfare was 5 cents to everyone over 5 years old and one of my favorite recreations was riding from 15th and Belmont, transferring to a south bound street car to 47th Street, then transferring to a Swope Park car. Also I went to the end of the Rosedale and Argentine car lines several times. We got to know the conductors pretty well, and their characteristics. One time I was the only female on the goat and the conductor told jokes about Arkansas and after that we referred to him as Arkansas. One we called the Good Conductor for he was not always careful to charge us our fare. Once, he wanted to match pennies with me but I had to be to cautious with my money, to do that. One, we called the mean conductor, but I guess he wasn't really mean, but just trying to do his job and collect all of the fares.

Our neighbors were the Demekes, the Coopers, the Burgers, the Helms, the Claybrooks, the Betts.

One time I was visiting Dads and said "by golly". Dad told me that if I said that again he would slap me and did. One of Mamma's friends was Mrs. Bradley and also a Dr. Maxey Joy. Mrs. Bradley was studying to be a doctor in the same classes with Doctor Joy, and I think she too, became a doctor. Her son took me to a few shows, also helped me get work at a printing company where he worked. I did bindery work and a little proof reading.

On December 17, 1906 I started learning telephone operating. I found it very interesting, but at that time, and for a long time afterward divided time operators had no days off. Once in a while she was given an hour or two off but no full days off. At first it did not bother me. I liked the imperative need of operators, but by the time I was a day operator I realized the need of any one for a day off a week, and feel that my crusading for that cause has had its affect. I was divided time operator, day operator night chief operator and day supervisor, A and B operator and information operator during my 9 years and 3 months with AT&T.

One of Mamma's memorable sayings was: You might as well have the game as the name. One time I accused her of marrying Dad for his money. She and Dad both laughed. Such an accusation sounds ridiculous to me now, knowing how poor our family always was. Throughout my life with Mamma I could not understand her, craving for mining gold, but I do thoroughly understand her desire for plenty. I do know now that money properly used can be a source of power and accomplishment. Mamma allowed me to invest ten dollars in Missouri River Navigation but I never realized any good of it except to get my name listed as an investor.

One time Dad was needing money but when I offered him some, he said he would not take money from anyone but his mother. So I sent the money to Grandma Sheldon, explained to her, and I suppose she sent it to Dad. One time I bought Lawrence a suit at Jones Store. At another later time Wallace needed some money to rent a place for Florence and himself to live. I let him have the ten dollars he asked for. All my life there have been essential things needed to use up my little bits of savings. But it is such a satisfaction to know I was not a wastrel.

Mamma became enthusiastic about buying an apple orchard. So, although the house on Belmont was not finished, we started buying a small tract near Neosho, Missouri. When Ellison was ten years old she had Typhoid Fever and Mamma had walking Typhoid. I wanted Ellison to have some strawberries. Mamma said she could have them if I peeled off the seeds. So I peeled off the seeds. An easier way would have been to crush and strain the berries, but I did not realize that until much later. Halley's Comet was visible at that time and I helped Ellison to the window to see it she wanted back in bed very shortly. She attended Humboldt School. She was sent to the cloak room one time, for punishment, and was still in the cloak room when the school was locked. I don't think she stayed there overnight but I do remember my indignation at the teacher having forgotten her. If Mamma was indignant she controlled it.

I bought Ellison a scholarship in Georgia Brown's School of Dancing and Dramatics. It always seemed to me, it opened the world for her. She was in "Mid Summer Nights Dream" at the Auditorium Theatre. An elaborate production. She did barefoot dancing at the Little Theatre; Goldilocks and The Three Bears; She was the littlest bear and got caught under the curtain when it was lowered. It was an accident but made a hit with the audience. She was in many Priests of Pallas Productions under Georgia Brown's direction. I was in two of these productions. Ellison was in an elaborate production at Electric Park. For several years Grandma Sheldon used to send me "The Youths Companion". Some of its stories stay with me yet. I learned to swim at the bathhouse at 17th and Paseo after I had gone there several years. I watched and envied others who had companions but I never had any help until after the realization came to me that I could swim. One evening just before the bathhouse closing I stood away from the ropes and swam three strokes by myself. It was one of my freedoms! When I told Ellison about it, she decided to go with me next time I went to the pool. I helped her and she helped me until both of us became fair swimmers and divers. Then Mamma and Florence went with us and all became fair swimmers. It took Mamma a long time to learn and she used water wings until she realized she could swim. Altogether Ellison and I helped many persons to learn to swim. Next to walking, I think swimming is the greatest sport. We went to the bathhouse, to the grove, Penn Valley Park, Fairmont, Electric and Forest Parks. I engaged in one ten mile marathon that started at the foot of Main Street and ended at the mouth of the Blue. After a practice swim of five miles, forty eight swimmers started but only twenty four finished. I believe I was twentieth or twentysecond of the finishers. Some one said two of the finishers got into boats and back out again, which should have disqualified them. A man named Phillips was my boatman and he had a helper. I never would have been satisfied if I had not completed the race, but I would not engage in one again for there were places in the river where they could not have helped me if they would have needed to. As it was when I reached the Chester Excursion Boat which ended the swim I was exhausted. A man on the boat stuck out his foot and I held to it until I could be helped in. And for a long time I sat in the engine room to recuperate. A woman who came in second after me was impatient with her boatman because they didn't coach her so she would come in ahead of me. She had won a first, diving at Electric Park, with Ellison second.

Mamma was glad I had come in ahead of her, but my only aim was to finish the ten miles. At a Labor Day race previous to this above mentioned, starting at Quindaro and ending at Main Street, I was the only woman of ninety-three swimmers. I made only three miles that time. A Mr. Brown- but no relative- was my boatman that time.

One time Lawrence took me to Fairmount to swim. He combed my hair afterward. It was on a Sunday. I don't know why he took such a notion. Just lonesome, I guess. My mother was a scold. As much as I honor her, and to me she seemed the bravest person I ever met but she did have that undesirable quality. Many times she has told me you are just like your father, and was not passing me any compliment. Before she and Dad separated, they quarrelled during the nights. One night I said to them that I wish they would stop their quarreling so that I could sleep. Both scolded me then, so I never repeated. This experience influenced me so that I never quarreled with my husband although we did not agree on all subjects. Another thing: Dad and Mamma used to whisper in my presence. It made me very curious and also resentful. Therefore I never whispered in the presence of my children. When matters could not be discussed in their presence, they were discussed after the children were voluntarily absent. And my children were taught it was not polite to whisper in company.

THE FAMILY TREE

I think that I shall never see the finish of a Family Tree.
As it forever seems to grow
from roots that started very low;
'Way back in ancient history times,
In foreign lands and distant climes.
From them grew trunk and branching limb,
That dated back to time so dim,
One seldom knows exactly when the parents met and married then.
Nor when the twigs began to grow
With odd named children, row on row.
'Though a verse like this is made by me,
And the end's in sight as you can see;
'Tis not the same with Family Trees
That grow and grow through centuries.

This chapter pertains particularly to the Ancestors and relatives of ETTA LOVISA MCGINNIS who married DAVID NORVIL BROWN (see chapter nine). The earliest progenitor of this family was probably JOHN MCGINNIS who was born about 1770. JOHN MCGINNIS and wife were residents of Shoreham, Vermont in 1794. He dreamed of finding buried treasure and dug for it. His wife was reportedly a fortune teller. The Shoreham Congregational Church passed a resolution making it a disciplinable offense for any member who should consult a fortune teller. JOHN bought land November 7, 1797. He sold it October 1, 1806. He was of Marlbro Town, Ulster County New York in 1790, and of Crown Point, Essex County New York in 1820 and 1830. He was probably the father of two daughters (names unknown) and three sons, AARON MCGINNIS born 1800-1810, STEVEN MCGINNIS and HARRISON MCGINNIS, both born between 1800 and 1820.

AARON MCGINNIS, was listed in the 1830 census as head of a household. The 1830 census shows him with a wife between 20 and 30 and a son under 5. AARON is not listed in the 1840 Census as he had sold his real estate on September 26, 1839. Real Estate records show the wife of AARON MCGINNIS as LOISA. It is my belief that the son under 5 years shown in his family in the 1830 census was in fact ORVILLE MCGINNIS.

ORVILLE MCGINNIS, born June 22, 1830 at Essex County, New York. He apparently left Essex County with his parents in 1839, and is not found again, by me, in any records until October 4, 1857 when he married MARY E. GOODWIN, daughter of JAMES P. and ROSEY GOODWIN. ORVILLE and MARY were married at Waverly, Bremer County, Iowa by A. TERRY minister of the Gospel. MARY was born July 17, 1842 in Essex County, New York. The GOODWINS arrived in Bremer County in 1856, having been in Illinois since 1852. ORVILLE MCGINNIS was not listed in Bremer County in 1856. (See section on GOODWIN FAMILY at the end of this chapter.)

The children of ORVILLE and MARY are:

EMMA MCGINNIS, born 1859 at Bremer County, Iowa

EMMA apparently died about 1876 in Bremer County, Iowa.

After the birth of this daughter and before any other children were born to this family, ORVILLE MCGINNIS enlisted in Company "I" Third Infantry of Missouri. He was mustered into service November 27, 1861 at St. Louis, Missouri. He served at the Battle of Pea Ridge, Arkansas and several other southern campaigns. ORVILLE was discharged November 16, 1864 at St. Louis, Missouri. After his return from the service, three more children were born:

RALPH MCGINNIS, born May 6, 1866/7 at Waverly, Iowa. In the decade 1910-1920 RALPH settled in St. Louis, Missouri. In about 1930 RALPH was married to a lady named ELLA. She was a widow or divorcee with two daughters (names unknown). ELLA passed away May 16, 1941 and RALPH passed away May 6, 1944 at Kimswick, Jefferson County, Missouri and is buried at St. Louis beside his wife.

ETTA LOVISA MCGINNIS, born February 4, 1868 at Warren Township, Bremer County, Iowa. She moved with her parents to McPherson, McPherson County Kansas in 1876 and attended School here, including the McPherson Normal School, where she met DAVID NORVIL BROWN, whom she married on Dec. 23, 1888 at McPherson, Kansas with J.H. RALSTON officiating.

Five children were born of this marriage. (See chapter nine of the BROWN FAMILY page 29). This marriage ended in divorce on September 21, 1911 at Independence, Missouri. ETTA married second to FRANZ CHRISTOPHER PELCHMANN (FRANK C. PELCHMAN) on May 11, 1913 by A. SCOTT BLEDSOE a minister who resided at 1542 Chelsea, Kansas City, Missouri. FRANK was born October 4, 1856 in Meppen, Hannover, Germany. He passed away September 9, 1922 and is buried at Elmwood Cemetary, K.C., Mo. ETTA PELCHMAN married next to SAMUEL S. STRONG in 1929 or 1930 and this marriage was of a short duration, ending when ETTA was granted a divorce August 12, 1930. ETTA married again in November 1940 to CHARLES E. LYNCH of Riverside, California. On February 12, 1945 while returning to her home she was struck down by an automobile and death was instantaneous. She is buried at Riverside, California. Her husband passed away later and is buried beside her.

LOUIE or LULU MCGINNIS, born January 1, 1877 at McPherson, Kansas. She married ALBERT WILLIAMS on August 15, 1903 at McPherson, Kansas. ALBERT WILLIAMS was born April 10, 1876 at Allerton, Iowa, son of ENOCH J. and SUSAN M. (STURGEON) WILLIAMS. Two children were born of this marriage:

ALBERT RILEY WILLIAMS, born March 15, 1908 at Larned, Kansas. He married RUTH SPINDLER on January 22, 1933 at Garnett, Kansas. Rev. FRED SUTTON officiating. One son, JOHN ALBERT WILLIAMS was born March 28, 1937 at Springfield, Illinois. JOHN married DONNA GRINDLE on June 20, 1959 at Union City, Indiana.

DOROTHY WILLIAMS, born about 1910 at Lawrence, Kansas. DOROTHY married BYRON C. CARROLL and two children have been born of this marriage. BYRON passed away March 30, 1961 at 57 years of age. He is buried at Floral Hills Memorial Garden, K.C., Mo.

ORVILLE MCGINNIS passed away February 21, 1898 at McPherson, Kansas. MARY (GOODWIN) MCGINNIS passed away July 18, 1890. They are buried side by side in the south half of lot 6, block 18, McPherson City Cemetary, McPherson, Kansas.

THE SLY FAMILY

This chapter deals primarily with the decedents of GEORGE SLY of England and are the ancestors of, or are related to MYRTLE JOSEPHINE SLY, who married HENRY LAWRENCE BROWN.

GEORGE SLY was born in England September 18, 1800 and may have been the son of CHARLES SLY who was buried December 27, 1806 in the Burial Yard of the Parrish of St. Michael, Braintree, Essex County, England. This is the same Parrish as that at which GEORGE SLY'S children were baptised. In the old court records for Essex County, England which I was able to examine for the years 1630-1640, I do not find the name SLY except where it ends with the letter E.

GEORGE SLY married MARY RUST who was born January 4, 1799.

Children born of this marriage;

ELIZABETH SLY, born October 6, 1822; baptised January 22, 1823.

JAMES SLY, born January, 25, 1824; baptised July 18, 1824.

JOSEPH RUST SLY, born August 23, 1825; baptised October 12, 1825 at St. Michaels. He married ELLEN MILLER TAYLOR Febuary 12, 1848 She was born born August 24, 1827. Their nine children will be listed later. JOSEPH RUST SLY died Febuary 10, 1891 at Armour, South Dakota where he ran, in partnership with his Brother-in-Law GEORGE TAYLOR, a resturant and bakery.

SUSANNAH SLY, born Febuary 9, 1828; baptised March 14, 1828.

It is also quite possible that there was another son named CHARLES SLY who came to New York prior to 1856. This CHARLES, if related, married and had a son SAM SLY. This SAM SLY moved to Blondonville, Illinois. He also had a son SAM SLY who went to South Dakota and had three sons ELMER, EDWARD and EARL who were residents of Clark, So. D. about 1916/1918. The younger SAM visited with my Grandfather GEORGE JOSEPH SLY, and they figured that they were second cousins.

JOSEPH RUST SLY, third above married ELLEN TAYLOR, who was born August 24, 1827 at Stanway, Essex, England, the daughter of THOMAS TAYLOR and MARY (MILLER) TAYLOR, who was born May 6, 1799 and she was the daughter of SAMUEL MILLER, who was born in 1775.

Their Children;

JAMES FREDRICK SLY, born December 28, 1852 at Colchester Parrish, Essex, England. He died Febuary 1, 1854 and is buried in England.

GEORGE JOSEPH SLY, born Febuary 3, 1855 at Lewisham Parrish, London, England. His parents departed from England in 1856, bringing him with them to Canada and then the the United States. The children of GEORGE JOSEPH SLY will be listed later in this chapter.

CAROLINE TAYLOR SLY, born April 20, 1866 at Morris, Illinois. She married and had five children. They will be listed later. CAROLINE died in 1943.

EMMA RUST SLY, born August 12th or 14th, 1868 at Morris, Illinois. She died March 19, 1889 at Centerville, Turner County, South Dakota.

GEORGE JOSEPH SLY, listed on page 78, married first to PRISCILLA KATE BUTT, who was born August 22, 1859 at Cardiff, Wales, the daughter of BENJAMIN and MARY ANN BUTT. She had four brothers and three sisters. GEORGE and PRISCILLA were married at her parents home in Morris, Illinois by J.A. Montgomery, pastor of the Congregational Church. Mary M. At the time of the first Census of the United States of America in 1790 there were twentyfour families by the name SLY. There were three families that spelled the name SLYE.

At the present time there are an estimated two hundred SLY families in England, according to Peter A.S. Sly of London, England. These families according to Mr. Sly reside primarily in the portions of the Country.

The name Slye is found quite often in early English court records, including those of the 17th Century, however I did not locate a single entry for the name Sly in the records I checked.

In Company with the Sly family on their Voyage from England to Canada, and their journey to the United States was the GEORGE TAYLOR family. GEORGE TAYLOR was the brother of Mrs. SLY.

GEORGE TAYLOR and his wife:

SARAH TAYLOR

THE EFFECT OF THE INGESTION OF LACTULOSE ON THE GASTRIC MOTILITY IN THE HUMAN BEING
BY DR. J. J. ROSS, JR., CHICAGO, ILL.
(Received for publication, March 15, 1913.)

The purpose of this investigation was to determine the effect of the ingestion of lactulose on the gastric motility in the human being. The results of the investigation are presented in the following tables.

The method employed was that of the ingestion of a known quantity of lactulose, followed by the measurement of the gastric motility by the method of the ingestion of a known quantity of a substance which is known to be absorbed in the small intestine.

The results of the investigation are presented in the following tables.

TABLE I

GEORGE JOSEPH SLY

I can remember when Daddy worked for Wolfel Leather Company buying hides. He would be gone for three or four days, and always bringing a surprise for us children when he returned. We would hide and he would find us. One time he brought home a puppy for us. I was under the table by the door. He came in and put the puppy on the floor near me. I had to go get the rest as that was a joyous time for us all. When he quit work we went to a farm at Rogers, Arkansas. We attended New Hope Church there. Daddy was a superintendant of the Sunday School for a long time. He ran a Watkins Route to supplant our small income from the farm. Dry weather had made farming a poor means of livelihood. Finally Daddy and mother reached the age where they had to leave the farm. They went to Kansas to live with Grace and Bill. This was where Daddy died.

I have often thought of Fathers love for music, like his parents did. "They earned their living for five years in England by singing together. I can think back and remember how he would take us on his knee and sing the songs he knew long ago. He enjoyed it as much as we did. And I remember when we got the organ, how he loved to have all of us get around the organ and sing.

JOSEPHINE WELDERT
BY
MAUDE ETHEL SLY

JOSEPHINE WELDERT was born February 6, 1870 at Bloomington, Illinois. When JOSEPHINE was still below school age her parents decided to go West.

Her parents, three brothers, LEO, AUDIE, and ROY and sisters SUSIE and MILLIE started out in a well stocked covered wagon. Her mother had baked bread, cookies, pies and cakes. She had baked beans with ham and bacon, enough to last several days.

They had a team of horses and an extra horse and a cow tied to the back of the wagon and their dog followed close behind.

They got as far as Nebraska, where they decided to stop for a while. Her parents rented a farm and there mother started into a town school. After two years her parents decided to go further West. They went in the covered wagon and landed in Douglas County, Dakota Territory. They were the first settlers in Douglas County.

Her father made a sod house--Indians roamed all about, but never made the family any trouble.

Mother and her brothers and sisters went to a country school about a mile from their home. The winters were cold and there were many blizzards. There were many prairie fires and once a prairie fire destroyed everything except their sod home.

Her father left the family while they were yet quite young, but they remained on the farm. Their mother took over the farm work and the girls took over the housework and care of the younger children.

When mother was in her late teens she went into Armour to look for work and started as a helper in a bakery and restaurant and later was married to her boss, George Sly, a widower.

They were married at her mothers home December 28th, 1890. Reverend L.T. Johns was the minister. Just the family was present at the wedding. After the wedding supper they went back to Armour in a snow storm. Three weeks after the wedding mother had the measles. The next year, I, their first child was born. Mother also was a mother to the son and daughter who were the children of her husband and his first wife Priscilla.

Mother saw three sons and four daughters grow to maturity and lost two sons in infancy. The oldest three were born in the same house in Armour, South Dakota and the next four in the same house in Morris, Illinois and the youngest on a twenty acre farm west of Rogers, Arkansas.

MABEL SLY BELT
AN AUTOBIOGRAPHY

I was born in South Dakota--Douglas County, December 18, 1884. I lived there till September the year I was eleven (1895).

We then moved to Greenville (about 60 miles East of Knoxville) Tennessee, and lived there about three months. Our parents tried to run a restaurant there, but times were poor and the restaurant was not a success. From Tennessee we moved to Morris, Illinois where I lived until I married, March 20, 1907.

I met my future husband, Guy Belt, in Morris, Illinois soon after he had returned from a Joliet, Illinois Hospital where he had undergone an amputation of the right leg in 1904/5.

We went to Anita, Iowa to an Aunts home (Callie Butts Steele) for a short wedding trip, returning to Bureau, Illinois to live our full married life.

We had seven children, four boys and three girls. One girl was taken at the age of 14 months with pneumonia, and another girl was stillborn. After Guy passed away September 12, 1939 I spent most of my time with my children, until moving to Tiskilwa, Illinois, In March of 1946 to care for an aged lady. I was with her for six years, and have remained in Tiskilwa ever since.

My education was very limited. The first five years were in Armour, South Dakota and I went to school one year in Morris, Illinois.

GEORGIA CORA (SLY) LONG
BY
MAUDE ETHEL SLY

Georgia Cora Sly was born July 30, 1895 at Armour, in Douglas Coutny, South Dakota. When Georgia was a very small baby she had Scarlet Fever. While she was still very young her parents learned that she was deaf as the result of her bout with the Scarlet Fever.

At the age of six she was sent to the Deaf Mute School at Jacksonville, Illinois. When her parents moved to Rogers, Arkansas she finished her high school education at Little Rock, Arkansas. After graduation she remained at the school and worked for two years.

It was here that she met her husband, Wallace Insco, also a deaf mute and a widower with a small son. The boys mother had died at his birth. Georgia cared for him till he was six, at which time he passed away during an Appendectomy. He is buried beside his own Mother near Bentonville, Arkansas.

Wallace Insco passed away, and is buried at Little Rock, Arkansas. After his death and while visiting in Springfield, Missouri, she met another deaf mute, Charles Long, and they were married March 20, 1940 at 814 North Walnut, Springfield, Missouri, the home of Mrs. D.C. Brites by Reverend Floyd Hitchcock. The ceremony was translated from the mute by Mrs. Robert Duff. No children were born of this marriage.

Georgia was taken ill in December 1954 and passed away January 17, 1955. Her husband Charles Long passed away in September 1958. They are buried side by side in the Rose Hill Cem. located near Willard, Missouri.

MAUDE ETHEL SLY
AN AUTOBIOGRAPHY

I was born October 24, 1891--in Armour, Douglas County, South Dakota.

I moved with my parents to Tennessee--close to Memphis--for a short time.

The folks moved to Morris, Illinois and at the age of six I started to school there.

At the age of sixteen years, I had to quit school on account of bad health.

At the age of eighteen I started out on my own to make my own living.

Since that time I have been, mothers helper, house keeper and friend and nurse to the sick and aged.

I am still working and caring for myself and I am nearing my seventieth birthday. I find nothing exciting about my life--I am single and on my way to old age.

MYRTLE JOSEPHINE SLY
AN AUTOBIOGRAPHY

I was born in Armour, South Dakota August 3, 1893. The folks owned a restaurant there. I've been told when they sold out we went to Tennessee. But not for long. They then went to Morris, Illinois where I grew up. We lived in a house on Hoge Street. It was next door to my cousins. There were quite a few kids on that street, we got along fine. Played baseball, hopscotch, house, and at night we went up under the arc light and played. Soon after coming to Morris we all had Scarlet Fever except brother Will and Sister Mable who were away working. I had Diptheria along with the fever. Dr. Nelson stayed with me night and day till I showed signs of improvement. Then I had a Mastoid behing the ear, and sat on the Doctors lap when he lanced it. When it was over he let me pull his nose and gave me nickle for being such a good girl. I was weak for a long time and had a lot of attention. Then time for starting to school. Went to school in a four room school house not to far from home. I don't remember much about the first four grades, then we went to a Center School for grades five through eight.

I was slow as the fever had left me with somewhat of a murmer. I couldn't run to much so sat on side lines for a lot of the games. I finally got through the eighth grade.

The folks had a restaurant in Seneca, Illinois. Maude and myself were waitresses. They held midnight suppers for the dances held every Saturday night. This we enjoyed as it was extra pay. Mamma and Daddy went to see Sister Georgia in Jacksonville Deaf School leaving me in charge. It was quite a responsibility for me but everything went well for the week they were gone. I worked for different ones and that fall I went to work for the Wolfel Leather Company. This was after my eighteenth birthday.

While working there I met a young man (George Summers) who gave me for Christmas 1911 a gold lapel pin watch which I still have. The next spring the folks went to a farm they had bought southwest of Rogers, Arkansas. I stayed in Bureau, Illinois at Sister Mabel's from April till June when the term at the deaf school ended.

I was to go by Jacksonville and pick up Sister Georgia who was attending the deaf school there. Somehow got the wrong connections and went to St. Louis. Used most of my money in sending telegrams and making phone calls. Sister came on the next day. I ran short of money and the matron was very kind and loaned me some money. When we got home I sent it to her.

After arriving in Arkansas, Mom and I picked Blackberries, worked for neighbors and I worked in town and at Lowell, Arkansas for Mr. and Mrs. Walker on the farm and Strawberry patch.

I was taken ill and went home with Typhoid Fever, was a terrible sick girl, out of my head and talked crazy. Doctor said I must go to a different climate, so went up to Sisters again in Bureau. I was not yet able to work but couldn't stay doing nothing, so I had several easy jobs and finally worked in Geyers Lunch Room at the Hotel. I stayed at the Hotel, worked days for awhile then was put on nights as head waitress and that is where I met HENRY L. BROWN. We never had a date there, but talked a lot and got acquainted. He left for Kansas City in June and in July I left for a transfer. I arrived there and decided to go on home, which I did. Shortly after the folks bought a restaurant in Lamonte, Missouri. I went ahead a week and all but Daddy and Maude came. Henry was a baby. We stayed there three or four months, then gave it up. Clinton and I went on to Rogers. Momma, Grace, Henry, Norton went to Miami, Oklahoma to her sisters till we could get a place to live & get things settled. Clinton and I had no place to stay so a lady at the Racket Store let us stay over night. We found a house the next day and moved in. It wasn't a large house, two large rooms & one small downstairs & two large rooms upstairs. All this time I had been writing to Henry Brown. So then at last he asked to come see me and the folks. We then set the date for marriage, June 18th. The week of the marriage, Maude and I kept going begging flowers from the neighbors. We made an arbor of Roses where we stood. Rev. Yoeman of the Methodist Church married us in the presence of my parents. We had a chicken dinner and trimmings. We left Rogers on 9:00 o'clock train for Kansas City where he was working for his Step Dad. We arrived in the morning, got a Hotel room and then out to find an apartment. Finally found one on Woodland nearly to 5th Street, on the third floor. We got acquainted with the couple downstairs. She and I got jobs at Montgomery Wards over Christmas rush and then in January we went house hunting. We found one at 6910 Indiana. I left work and we moved on February 14. We got his Dads things out of storage to begin; bed, Monkey stove, table, pair of pillows. We used boxes for chairs. On September second the first boy was born in the bedroom. That was 1920. Sister Maude was with us at the time. In the mean time his Step Dad died and he was without work. We got along on the little he made, I sewed & did odd jobs to help along, then on January 16th, 1924 the second son was born. It was a cold winter and we had the bed in the front room and the door covered with a quilt. We got along pretty good and Daddy had a better job. We got a old Ford car, went fishing on week ends and to visit friends on a farm at Sarcoxie. Then several years later got a Buick, Calif. top, nice car for us.

Coming home from Sarcxie, Mo one Sunday evening and was about to Homes Park, Missouri when we had a car wreck. I had black eyes and bruises. Daddy hurt his knee. Wallace a cut on his forehead. George was unhurt. I started piecing quilts when I learned another child was to be added. He arrived on April 16, 1933. This time after ten days in bed I was unable to stand so I went back to bed and stayed until sometime in July with milkleg. I had to learn to walk all over again. First trip I took after I got up was to Liberty to see Henry's Father at the Odd Fellows Home. Then in November, Norvil being only nine months old, we went to Arkansas to a farm Henry had bought. It was out of Avoca. He quit his job and tried to farm. We lost horse and mule. So back to Kansas City he came. The three boys and I went to Rogers to live till he found a job and a house for us. Then in November of '34 we came back to Kansas City and lived on Topping between Eleventh and Perry. The house was cold, water froze and we nearly did, too. Then Uncle Wallace got us a Fern laundry agency at Twelvth and vine. We were there a little over a year and I got sick. We went and lived with Grandma Pelchman at 1407 Belmont. Then after school was out I found a place at 7207 Askew-three rooms. We had sold most of the furniture when we left the laundry agency, so we had no beds. All the quilts were layed on the floor and we all slept there for a few nights. As time permitted we bought some things. We added a fruit cellar, bedroom and bathroom as soon as we were able. That was fine for a while then while George was taking carpentry we enclosed the front porch and made it into a bedroom. We lived there about ten years. Two of the boys were graduated from school and serving in the army, about to be discharged. I didnt think the house was large enough, so we bought a house at 1808 East 81st Terrace. It was larger and had two rooms upstairs which the boys could share. We lived there ten years and all three boys were married and had homes of their own, and I wanted a small farm. We bought a forty acre farm at Eldorado Springs, Missouri. In the fall we took down some things and in the spring, February 22 we moved the rest. Daddy took room and board in K.C. so as to be able to continue at work. He came down on weekends. I stayed there nearly five years, then came back to K.C. when we bought a place at 3511 East 75th st. We stayed there two years, then we moved to a new home at 2000 Denver, where we now live. We were married 44years on June 18, 1963. We have eight Grandchildren.

Information about Slys and South Dakota
by Reta Sly

The North and South Dakotas were made a Territory in 1861, so they are both celebrating the centennial, or 100 years since they were a Territory. South Dakota and North Dakota became States in 1889 so are only 72 years old as States. Both States are celebrating and at different times and in different cities. We are not particularly interested in Yanktons Celebration, although it was the first capitol of the territory, and has a lot of early history. We are especially interested in Armour, as they are celebrating their 75th Anniversary. There was not any Armour when you (Mable Sly Belt) were born in 1884. The folks lived on a claim in Joubert Township in Douglas County, which is the west part of Douglas County. The County was organized in 1882. The folks came in 1883 by emmigrant train to Scotland (Bon Homme County, Dakota Territory) then drove overland and filed on the claim where you (Mable Sly Belt) were born. After they proved up on the claim they moved to Armour which was started in 1886 and William was born the following year, 1887. This was just a few months before the blizzard of 1888. The early records show Taylor and Sly restaurant and bakery. The first train came into Armour in 1886 bringing Mr. and Mrs E. P. Wanzer who was Williams first teacher. Before the train came into Douglas County There was a town of Granville about 6 miles north of where Armour is now and it moved over and became a part of Armour. Now Armour is celebrating the 75th Anniversary from 1886 to 1961. They are having it July 9-10-11.

Taken from a letter written by Reta Sly to Mable Sly Belt in 1961.

A photograph in the Armour Celebration booklet showed George Joseph Sly as a volunteer fireman.

GRACE ELEANOR SLY
STANDLEY
AN AUTOBIOGRAPHY

I was born Grace Eleanor Sly, January 8, 1907 on Hoog Street, Morris, Illinois, the daughter of George J. and Josephine Sly--the seventh child of this union.

At five years of age(April 1912) I moved with my family to a small farm at Rogers, Arkansas.

There I attended the Oak Hill, Dist. 44, Rural School of Benton County. In 1925 I graduated from Rogers High School.

All my life I had only one ambition; to be a school teacher. So in the fall of 1925 I began my teaching career at a Rural School in the eastern part of Benton County. This school was located about two miles east of Brightwater, and was called "Freedom".

I was hired to teach six months but at the end of the six months they asked me to continue for two more months. I taught the seventh month, but having enrolled at Conway, Arkansas State Teachers College, I did not teach the eight month. My salary was seventy dollars that year. I paid twenty dollars a month board. I was eighteen years old, but several of my twenty one students were two or three years older than I.

The next year I went farther east, to a two room school, named Ozark. This school was about five miles east of Garfield. Here I taught for eighty dollars a month and advanced to one hundred dollars in four years. I taught seven terms of school before my marriage to William Otto Standley in April 1931. We were married at Pineville, Missouri and made our home at Centerton, Arkansas.

On February 12, 1932 our daughter, Delores Eleanora was born. Clayton Eugene was born June 22, 1933 and Charles William was born January 2, 1935. All three children were born at Centerton, Arkansas.

I have been a member of the Methodist Church since the age of ten. In August 1936 we moved our family to St. Paul, Kansas. We have since then lived at Walnut and Erie, Kansas. During World War Two I taught three years in rural schools near Galesburg, Kansas. In 1950 we moved to Erie, where we still reside.(1961). We had hardly settled there when I was again drafted there into a teaching job. I taught one year at Earlton, Kansas, grades 5-8 and then moved on to Kimball-Dist. 102- teaching grades 1-4 and acting Principal. I stayed at this school nine years. This year (1961) I accepted a position as first grade teacher at Thayer, Kansas.

My husband Bill--now 65 years old has retired from public work and is keeping busy with his "Bill's Bait And Tackle Shop" and our small acreage. Our daughter Delores is married to Charles A. Priest. They have a lovely little daughter, Charlene Adre and live in San Jose, California.

The Russells lived at 92 Huron Street in Chicago, and after the Chicago fire of 1871 in which ARCHIBALD died, MARGARET continued to live at 92 Huron St. until her death in 1894-1895. This address is now known as 365 West Huron Street, and is located in the Holy Name Cathedral Parish, where the RUSSELLS probably attended church.

PRICE

The emmigrant ancestor of this line of the Price family is probably one JOHN PRICE, however I shall begin this chapter with PUGH PRICE, also known as PEW PRICE, who was apparently born before 1740. In the year 1782 PUGH PRICE had ten members in his household plus 18 slaves. He resided then in Prince Edward County, Virginia. Also residing in Prince Edward County at that time was a William Price and a CHARLES PRICE (probably the son of PUGH).

PUGH PRICE recieved a land grant from the King of England or a land company on the 12th of January 1747, comrised of 400 acres on the Buffalo River. In 1790 PUGH WILLIAMSON PRICE sold 80 acres at Sydney-Hampden, which was possibly land of the original grant to his Grandfather.

PATTERSON

This information on the family of Patterson was contributed by MRS. L. G. KELLERMAN of Route 4, Garnett, Kansas. I have included a few notes from my own information.

SAMUEL or THOMAS LEWIS PATTERSON, born probably in Preble County, Ohio about 1820. He had a brother REUBEN who was born December 6, 1835 in Preble County, Ohio. There were apparently 11 other children in this family, however no information is known except that the youngest lived in Baton Rouge, Louisiana.

SAMUEL or THOMAS married ELIZABETH HUGHES on April 30, 1842. It is reported that this marriage took place in Elwood, Indiana, however it is my belief that the marriage took place in Warren or Montgomery County, Ohio. The marriage records in Elwood, Indiana were destroyed by fire in 1881. ELIZABETH HUGHES was born in County Tyrone on the Blackwaters in Ireland in 1811. She came to America and Indiana in 1827. She had 2 sisters and 3 brothers all who resided in and near Elwood, Indiana. Three children were born of this marriage, the last being born after the death of his father, who was killed in a run away buggy accident in 1845.

JAMES HENRY PATTERSON, born February 7, 1843. His family and children will be listed later.

REBBECCA B. PATTERSON, born about 1844-45. She married a MR. ISHAM.

THOMAS LEWIS PATTERSON, born January 15, 1846. Thomas married RHODA ANN LAKE on November 1, 1867. THOMAS served in Co G, 75th Indiana Volunteer Infantry and fought in several major battles. He inlisted at Quincy, Indiana.

After the death of SAMUEL or THOMAS LEWIS PATTERSON, ELIZABETH married a MR. MARTIN and passed away at Marion, Iowa in 1899. Aged then at 87.

REUBEN PATTERSON, brother of SAMUEL or THOMAS LEWIS PATTERSON married ELIZABETH MARY LEE PITTMAN on December 18, 1856 at Fortville, Hancock County, Indiana. Four daughters were born of this marriage; FANNIE, LUCY, CORA, BESSIE. REUBEN served in Co K, 79th Regiment Indiana Volunteer Infantry, having inlisted at Indianapolis on August 15, 1862. REUBEN was a Minister at Elwood, Indiana

AGNES JANE ANDERSON PATTERSON died July 2, 1879, at the age of 30 years 2 months and 9 days. She died just three months after the birth of her fifth child. JAMES HENRY PATTERSON married second to MARTHA MOORE, cousin of his first wife, in 1880 at Elwood, Indiana. MARTHA was born April 2, 1854 in Elwood, Indiana. She had been married previously and had a daughter LULA GRACE CRANDALL, who was born September 4, 1875 at Elwood, Indiana. She died July 8, 1909 at Kansas City, Kansas.

Children born to JAMES and MARTHA (MOORE) PATTERSON;
EDWIN HENRY PATTERSON, born May 23, 1881 at Elwood, Indiana. He died about July of 1962.

PEARL MAY PATTERSON, born August 8, 1885 at Kansas City, Kansas on Mill Street. After divorcing MR. PATTERSON, MARTHA married a MR. HOPKINS. MARTHA is buried in lot 19, block 54 of Mt. Their children are listed in the chapter on PRICE. (see page)

JAMES HENRY PATTERSON enlisted in Company E, 34th Regiment Indiana Volunteers at Anderson, Indiana on September 21, 1861. He served as a private and was wounded, as is borne out by the fact that he was hospitalized early in 1863. He left the service February 1, 1863 at Keokuk, Iowa. He attended college in Ohio according to his sons SAM and LOREN. He is said to have been an architect and was builder of St. Margaret's Hospital in Kansas City, Kansas. His death certificate shows his occupation as carpenter.

JAMES HENRY PATTERSON was affiliated with Marion Lodge# 6, A.F.&A.M. (Masons) on December 30, 1876. He was suspended for non payment of dues on April 8, 1882.

JAMES HENRY PATTERSON married third EMMA (probably BALDWIN) She was born in 1856 and died in 1934. She is buried in grave 272 Section 4 of Mount Washington Cemetery. Kansas City, Missouri
JAMES resided at 3120 Garfield at the time of his death on January 25, 1924. He was buried from Newcomers Mortuary at 2111 East 9th and layed to rest in Section C of Mount Washington Cemetery, Kansas City, Missouri.

THE END?

I place a question mark behind the word end, because end seems so final, and I am so in hope that some of our decendents might find this book an inspiration to produce one of much greater magnitude.
